

Nothing Great Was Ever Accomplished Without Enthusiasm

When we started our upstairs store, we were enthusiastic, because we knew we had a proposition that would interest every man who was anxious to save money.

Today the great army of men who wear our clothing justify our prophecy. Every man whose coat bears the Hurley label is enthusiastic—he's proud of his suit or overcoat—and tells his friends where he bought it.

A man who is Hurleyized carries perpetually with him a recommendation of character, Self-Reliance and Economy.

Come in today, if only to get acquainted with our store.

FRED LAKE SIGNS UP WITH DOVES

Was Manager of the Red Sox Last Season.

(Special from United Press.) Boston, Dec. 10.—The Boston National League team has secured a new manager in Fred Lake, who last season led the Boston American team.
Lake will take the place of Harry Smith, who had charge of the team during the latter part of last season.
Lake will assume his new duties at once and will attend the major league meeting in New York next week. The selection of Lake for the Doves is most popular, having made many Boston friends by the great showing the Red Sox made last season while under his management. A dispute over salary, caused his resignation to be sent to the American management soon after the season was over. Lake had often been spoken of to manage the Philadelphia Nationals since the recent deal by which they had been purchased by a syndicate, in the event that Johnny Kling could not be purchased from Chicago. Lake formerly played catch and managed the Lowell team of the New England league.

CUT RECITATIONS FOR BASKETBALL

NOW THREE BEST NEW HAVEN HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES ARE BARRED FROM ALL TEAMS.

New Haven, Dec. 10.—Barred from athletics for the rest of the school year ending next June and for some of the rest of their school days is the price to be paid by three of the best all around athletes and crack football players of the New Haven high school for "cutting" school recitations and playing basketball during school hours. Frank Saxe, captain of the basketball team of the high school, Abraham Alderman and Morris Frankel, left end and tackle, respectively, on the high school football team, were dropped from all teams and forced to sever connections from everything concerning athletics the only condition by which they could return to school, yesterday, by Superintendent F. H. Beede.

For the first time in the history of the local high school, students will be forced to eliminate athletics from their school work and the decision, it is claimed, takes away the most effective players of all high school teams, incidentally breaking up all team work for the coming year at the high school and an extent crimping high school athletics. The three students accepted the condition given them and will buckle down to their studies. Superintendent Beede decision, although severe, is to be a sort of an object lesson to all pupils "cutting" recitations and to prove to them that the offense is a serious one.

It is claimed by the school authorities that last Wednesday a number of the students assembled in the Y. M.
C. A. gymnasium at 9 o'clock in the morning and donning basketball suits worked during the school hours on the "gym" floor to develop themselves physically instead of developing themselves mentally in the recitation rooms. Through the Y. M. C. A. authorities the high school faculty heard of the matter and the boys, after reporting to the high school authorities, were sent to Superintendent Beede.

MORE DANVILLE PROOF.

Jacob Schrahl, 432 South St., Danville, Ill., writes: "For over eighteen months I was a sufferer from kidney and bladder trouble. During the whole time was treated by several doctors and tried several different kidney pills. Seven weeks ago I commenced taking Foy's Kidney Pills, and am feeling better every day and will be glad to tell anyone interested just what Foy's Kidney Pills did for me."

Billy Hogg, Yank Pitcher, is Dead

New Orleans, Dec. 10.—Death has robbed baseball of William Hogg, who last spring was turned loose by the Greater New York club. Hogg came here early last month to pitch for one of the local teams during the winter.
Two weeks ago he was taken ill with kidney trouble. The end came Tuesday night.
Hogg joined the Yankees three years ago and the first season did good work.
In 1908 he began to fall off in his work and was suspended until he could get into condition. Last spring he failed to come up to expectations and was released to the Louisville club. Hogg was thirty years of age.

BOWLING.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE.

The Cornwall-Patterson Co. quintet made a clean sweep of it last evening with the Geo. C. Batchelor team in the Industrial league contest. The winners were lucky though, winning the first string by but two pins, and the second by five. The third was not so evenly contested. None of the scores were extra heavy. The winners will have to put up a stronger game, if they want to be in the running with the other teams. The scores:

Johnson to Blame

It is the candid opinion of those closely connected with the political situation that President Ben Johnson of the American League, is to blame for the present situation. His statement wherein he refused to serve on the national commission with John M.
Ward was like sticking a burr in the side of the horse. It is just to show him that he cannot run matters in the senior organization to his own liking that the Heydler faction has been broken up.
Everything depends upon the stand taken by Robinson. If the St. Louis president will back John he will be nominated and a deadlock will probably be in order with the four men in favor of the present holder of office eager to stand like a stone wall.

HERRMANN IS EAST TO ELECT HEYDLER

Red President Takes a Whack at Murphy.

New York, Dec. 10.—August Herrmann, President of the Cincinnati Baseball club, and Chairman of the National Commission, arrived in the city yesterday and made it plain to everybody concerned that he was out for the re-election of John Heydler for the Presidency of the National league. One thing is very certain, Mr. Herrmann and Barnes, president of Pittsburgh, two of the most influential men connected with the sport, are strong for Heydler, and it seemed to be the consensus of opinion among baseball men last night that, in spite of the opposition to the present head of the league by Charles W. Murphy and Charles H. Eubank, present indications pointed to his success in the league meeting next week.

When Heydler's name was first mentioned to succeed Harry Pulliam, said Mr. Herrmann, "I was opposed to him because I did not believe him qualified for the place. But development since that time in the National League have made it clear to me that he is a capable, efficient man. The objections that have been raised against him in some quarters have been silly, and it looks very much as if some of the managers wanted to go on the diamond and impire their own games. Even then some of them would not be satisfied.
Heydler has made mistakes. Every man makes them. If I had a man working for me who didn't make a few mistakes I would think that he was lazy and wasn't doing any work.
Why, I make mistakes every day of my life."

New Pittsburgh Rumor

Pittsburgh, Penn., Dec. 10.—William C. Temple of Winter Park, Cal., will reach New York next Tuesday and will be guest at the baseball banquet to be given by the Pittsburgh club at the Waldorf-Astoria on Wednesday evening. Mr. Temple who was formally president of the National League as President and owner of the Pittsburg club, comes from the Pacific Coast on an invitation extended by Barney Dreyfuss of Pittsburgh and there is a rumor here about the Heydler forces are not strong enough to re-elect the present incumbent. Mr. Temple may be offered by them a compromise candidate.
Some years ago, before the affairs of the National League were placed in the hands of a committee, Mr. Temple was offered the Presidency of the league, but he announced that he would not consider it, as he was contemplating leaving the National League territory to take up a residence on the Pacific Coast.

SCHOOL FOR UMPS WILL SOON START

Forty Lessons to a Course — Diplomas to be Awarded.

Cincinnati, Dec. 10.—A school for umpires, a scheme which may probably be tried by the big leagues in the near future, will be started here today. The school is being conducted by the Cincinnati Reds. The school will consist of forty lessons to a course, and after a rough ball tossing, the those in a proficient manner he will be given a diploma and be recommended to the different leagues as capable of securing ball tossing. The school will be four instructors, of which Bill Carpenter, who umpired in the Southern League last season, will be the chief.
Headquarters will be in Cincinnati.

The Dyspepsia Of Old Age

Strong Digestion and an Adequate Nutrition Invariably Mean A Long and Healthy Life.

There is a process known as metabolism going on constantly in the body, and by which the tissues are built up, and after having served their purpose in the physical economy, are torn down and cast off.

So long as the due relations between waste and supply is maintained, nutrition, and the various functions of the body are continued. But after middle life and in old age there comes a time when waste exceeds supply, and when the various elements which constitute the different fluids, tissues and organs no longer hold their due proportion. The principle of life itself becomes enfeebled, the body no longer having power to assimilate new material as it once did.

As old age creeps on, all the functions gradually fall, especially those of digestion, absorption and assimilation, and the system being deprived of its full quota of nutriment, slowly wears out. If the nutritive and digestive processes of old people could be maintained unimpaired, life could be prolonged almost indefinitely.

There are many old persons in whose stomachs the gastric function is almost entirely suspended. When this trouble occurs, the problem is, how to digest the food and get along without the natural stomach juices.
There is but one way to overcome the effects of this condition, and that is to supply artificially to the stomach a powerful digestive substance to take the place of the juices which it fails to secrete naturally.

For this purpose, there is nothing superior to STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS known to medical science, as they supply the deficiency, and are such a reliable and thoroughly efficient substitute for the natural gastric juices, that if two or three are taken after each meal, the food will be digested in so complete a manner, that the natural digestive fluids will never be missed.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be used by all old and middle aged persons, in order to prevent or cure the dyspepsia of old age. Through their use complete digestion of the food is assured, with a consequent increased nutrition of the body, and a staving off of the senility and decrepitude of old age.

This remedy is, however, not only good for the indigestion incidental to advanced life, but is also applicable to the dyspepsia and stomach troubles of any age, from youth up.

Secure a package of this famous dyspepsia remedy from your druggist for 50c and if you find that as you get older, your digestion and assimilation becomes weaker, this remedy will assist the stomach in the performance of its functions, so that the general system will not suffer from the delinquency of the digestive organs.

A sample package will be sent you if you will forward your name and address to the F. A. Stuart Company, 150 Stuart Building, Marshall, Michigan.

ALL CHAMPIONS ARE FOR CORBETTS

Two Corbets, "Young" and Jim; the Former is to Have a Benefit, the Latter Will Train Jeff.

There is no hesitancy among the many friends of Young Corbett in lending their aid to make the big benefit to the little fighter a huge success when Christmas night rolls around.
The scene of the testimonial is Madison Square Garden. All the present champions with the gloves and the grappling hooks will pass the jab and the hook and lock arms on the mat.
One particular feature of the occasion will be four of the greatest light-weights that ever lived seen in the ring at the same time—Jack McAuliffe, Kid Lavigne, Joe Gans and Young Corbett himself. They will box alternately until each has sparred with each.

Jim Corbett is on his way home from Europe. When he steps ashore he can be prepared for a lot of hot air about the Jeff-Johnson mill. Corbett has had nothing but severe criticism and ridicule for Johnson ever since the latter whipped Burns, while on the other hand Gentleman Jim has never failed to urge Jeffries to tackle the negro. Corbett may help to train Jeff, and as the boilermaker is after speed the man with the pompadour may be of service.

POISON GIVEN COWS AT MADISON

Madison, Dec. 10.—The following placard has stirred Madison, Clinton and nearby towns to their depths:
"$500 reward will be paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons concerned in the poisoning of cattle at the barn occupied by the Ham-monasset Fishing Association on Monday night, November 23, 1909. All communications confidential. Address P. O. Box 189, New Haven, Conn."

It is understood here that Paris green was placed on the feed of the cattle at the clubhouse barns.
That cows should be poisoned is bad enough, but that they should be those of the Hammonasset Fishing club is worse. To increase the gravity of the matter, it is stated that one of the cows which was so dastardly attacked was the famous bovine given by President C. S. Mellen of the New Haven road to Attorney C. K. Beach of New
